

OIB Organizes a Staff Orientation Program

In its effort to train and scale its new recruited staff in OIB's various departments and branches in the different regions and districts of the Sultanate. Recently in cooperation with College of Banking and Financial Studies, the bank organized a staff orientation program on principals of banking operations. This program was held in Ruwi training center with the participant of 26 staff.

The program delivered many topics like Meaning and functions of banking, Opening and conducting accounts, customer care and staff responsibility towards the client and the bank.

The objective of this program is to develop Omani cadres working in the bank. To develop an understanding of money market in the Sultanate and to improve the quality of services and facilities offered by the bank to its clients.

OIB presently runs seven centers for training and qualifying officers in each of Salalah, Ibra, Barka, Sohar, Nizwa, Sur, and Buraimi, in addition to the main training center in Ruwi which supervises these centers for follow-up and development of staff through annual training programs and plans to include all banking and administrative disciplines in the bank.

